

LOS ANGELES BUSINESS JOURNAL

LA 500: Marc Rapaport, Principal | Thorofare Capital

Money Players

Written By: Los Angeles Business Journal, Thursday, August 17, 2017

Marc Rapaport is a private investor with a wide range of operational experience. Rapaport began his investment banking career at Drexel Burnham Lambert in 1983, after practicing law in Los Angeles. He co-founded the capital division of Jefferies & Co. in 1990 and served as its executive vice president. He was also a director of Jefferies and a member of the firm's executive committee until 1994. From 1995 until 1998, Rapaport was chairman of the Los Angeles Galaxy and lead investor in the team. Rapaport had been a founder of Major League Soccer. He is the chairman of the Cedars Sinai Health System board.

Alma Maters: Bachelor's, University of Pennsylvania; JD, Harvard Law School.

Link to Article: <http://labusinessjournal.com/news/2017/aug/17/la-500-marc-rapaport/>

DISCLOSURE: This reprinted article being provided for informational purposes only and intended for our non-advisory loan origination and servicing clients only. The content herein was prepared by third parties of which we have no editorial control, so we do not warrant the reliability of any statements herein. Nothing herein is an offer or solicitation for the purchase or sale of any security, may not be relied upon in connection therewith, and is qualified in its entirety by any related Private Placement Memorandum and Partnership Agreement. An investment in a private real estate fund involves a substantial degree of risk and investors could lose some or all of their investment.